How did the Fund perform last year? What affected the Fund's performance?

FUND AND MARKET PERFORMANCE

For the fiscal year ended April 30, 2026, the Steward Large Cap Value Fund (Institutional Class) (the "Fund") returned 26.07%, underperforming the Russell 1000 Value Index (the "Benchmark") return of 29.25%.

POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE CONTRIBUTORS TO PERFORMANCE

The Fund's underperformance relative to the Benchmark was primarily driven by sector allocation which was modestly offset by positive stock selection. Detractors included information technology, which reduced relative performance by -5.58%, particularly within the semiconductors and semiconductor equipment companies at -4.45%. Conversely, financials contributed positively by 2.69%, with financial services companies adding 1.78%. On an individual stock basis, the largest detractors were Micron Technology Inc. and Genpact Limited. The best performing stocks were Millicom International Cellular SA and Western Digital Corporation.

Fund Performance

The performance graph below shows the performance of a hypothetical $100,000 initial investment in the Fund's Institutional Class over a ten-year period (or for the life of the Fund or share class, if shorter). The subsequent account value as of the end of the reporting period is listed next to the name of the Fund or index, as applicable. The performance table below shows the average annual total returns of the Fund's Institutional Class for the past one-, five- and ten-year periods, as applicable (or for the life of the Fund or share class, if shorter), as of the end of the reporting period. Both the graph and table compare the performance of the Fund's Institutional Class to an appropriate broad-based index and may compare to additional indices reflecting the market segment(s) in which the Fund invests, over the same periods.
