

Crossmark Global Investments Named to 2019 “Invest in Others” Charitable Champions List

Houston Financial Advisory Firm Earns National Recognition for Leadership in Corporate Philanthropy

Houston, TX – December 10, 2019 –Crossmark Global Investments has been announced as one of twenty financial advisory firms selected for the Invest in Others Charitable Foundation’s 2019 Charitable Champions List.

The Charitable Champions List recognizes advisory firms for their exemplary efforts to give back to their communities by promoting a culture of philanthropy amongst employees and financial advisors. Invest in Others received dozens of applications, which were evaluated blindly by a judging panel made up of financial advisors. Applications were evaluated on criteria including employee benefits, company contributions, and philanthropic events and programs offered by the firms.

Crossmark frequently partners with the local Houston community and global organizations on a regular basis to provide aid and support to local charities and organizations, specifically those in which Crossmark employees have a unique interest. Some of the groups include Mission of Hope in Haiti, Houston Food Bank, Clint Capella’s CC15 Foundation, Convoy of Hope, and Plant with Purpose, among many others. For more information on Crossmark’s philanthropic efforts, you can visit the philanthropy section of the company’s website here.

“Charity and community service is an essential part of what our company represents,” said Michael Kern, President and CEO of Crossmark. “It’s not just something we do as a hobby – it’s part of our corporate DNA, and we are proud of the various ways that both our firm and our individual employees contribute to communities in need. We are honored to be recognized for the efforts we have taken to positively impact those around us.”
